

Adjectives Scavenger Hunt

1. Find something that can be both loud and quiet then write it below
2. Find something useful and write it below
3. Think of an adjective that begins with the letter "E"
4. Use your new adjective to describe something outside
5. Listen to the sounds of nature, use an adjective to describe how they make you feel?
6. Find a teacher and act out someone behaving "bewildered"
7. Use "ancient" in a sentence describing something you can see and write it below
8. How could you make someone feel "encouraged"?
9. What is a way we can act "responsibly" in the outdoors?
10. Think of an adjective that begins with the letter "H"
11. Use your new adjective to describe something outside
12. Give an example of how you have been "considerate" today?
13. Find something "unusual" in the playground and write it below
14. What adjective could you use to describe how the Astro feels?
15. When you've finished, return to an adult as quietly as you can